

SING FOR AFRICA

Wednesday 25th February 2009
The Miller, London Bridge @ 7pm

Concert for SOHCA Project (Sierra Leone) (School of High Conscious Awareness)

Sing for Africa concert is organised to help SOHCA project to build a secondary school in Matamp (Sierra Leone). You'll be joining us to sing and dance on music from all over the world. Many talented international artists will be entertaining you.

- Senegalese percussions with the London band Lamp Fall
- Matsai, a talented singer/composer/producer/multi instrumentist and visual artist will take us on a musical voyage across the world
- Christian rock band with Simplicity
- "Skip hop", a mix between ska and hip hop by the talented Beatmaster aka "Instinctive Xpression"
- And many more...

It surely will be a brilliant evening for all. Make sure you buy your tickets at an Early bird rate of £10 (Buy one/invite a friend for free).

To book your place go to <http://sing4africa.eventbrite.com>.

(Buy one/Invite a friend for free) Early bird £10; at the door: £15

Venue : The Miller www.themiller.co.uk

96 Snowfields Road, London Bridge

London SE1 3SS (Tube London Bridge)

Directions:

3 minutes from the station: Take the exit "Guy's hospital", and go straight for 200 meters (go past the Starbucks, and then past the Mac Donalds and continue straight) and make a left at the small roundabout, you can see the Miller on your left.

For more detail please call Francine 07 8969 32302